Mr. William E. Colby, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

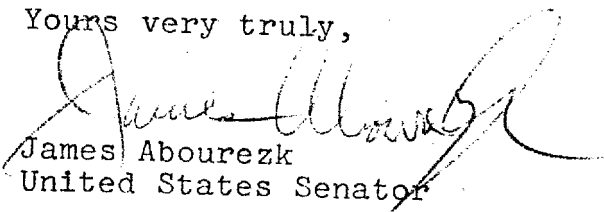

Dear Mr. Colby:

It had not previously occurred to me during my tenure in the Senate to obtain non-classified material held by the Central Intelligence Agency. But in the wake of the news that Senator Jacob Javits was able to receive tapes of Ramsey Clark's statements from Hanoi by requesting them from your agency, I would like to request a list of non-classified materials which would be available to the public under the Freedom of Information Act.

I would very much appreciate having such a list no later than the end of next week.

My thanks in advance,

Yours very truly,

James Abourezk
United States Senator
